James Joyce

B2.1

▶ Joseph Quinn

READING & TRAINING

This is the story of James Joyce, a writer who overcame the limitations of poverty, nationalism, religion, family and near blindness. He only wrote about his native city, Dublin, though he refused to live there. In his lifetime, he was much criticised, but he became one of the greatest writers of the twentieth century. However, he would not have achieved this without the help of three women.

Dossiers:

The Irish renaissance; Irish emigration
