STORIES STICK

Get Glued to the Language
with Graded Readers!

Good stories, their words, themes and values, stay with us forever. That's why we say "Stories Stick": they merge together with who we are as people. They become a part of us.

Stories really are one of the best ways to learn languages. They introduce us to new words and expressions, new characters and places, transporting us into the past and the future, and teaching us about the present.

For over 30 years, Black Cat has believed great writers are the best teachers. Today, more than ever, we know that reading is one of the most amazing ways to learn. Not only a foreign language but also, perhaps more importantly, about life.

The Ugly Duckling

Retold by Ruth Hobart

Every night, Dorothy delivers dreams – to adults, children and even pets. Usually everyone gets the dream they want, but one dark night Dorothy can’t see, and she delivers the wrong dreams... But in this delightful, original tale everything ends happily as a chorus of cats comes to the rescue!

A farmer plants a turnip seed and overnight it grows into an enormous turnip! But, even though he and his family pull and pull, they can’t pull the turnip out of the ground. Read how, in this retelling of a delightful tale, a little mouse makes a big difference, and everyone enjoys an enormous turnip meal.

One day Grandma makes a gingerbread man for tea but, when he is cooked, he jumps off the table and runs away. He doesn’t want to be eaten! Grandma, Grandpa and Billy and all the animals he passes try to catch him, but he runs too fast for them. Unfortunately, he doesn’t know how to swim!

Bullies at school pick on Bobo, who is a bit small for his age. Not to worry, for Bobo is a resourceful young lad with a few surprises of his own, and he soon teaches the bullies a lesson!

A very curious star wants to know what the sun is like. When the moon calls the stars to go to bed, she hides under a cloud and waits. Little by little the sun comes out and a world of colourful things appears. The star loves what she sees and every time she discovers a new colour she sings a magic song because she wants to become coloured. Nothing seems to change, but in the end the star gets a great surprise.

Two children are playing with their sheep and the dog. Behind the clouds the wind and the sun are having an argument. The wind thinks he’s strong, but the sun thinks he’s stronger. When they see the children with their coats on they decide to compete to take their coats off. The wind blows and blows.

A class of young South African schoolchildren go on a trip to a safari park. They have been looking forward to it and they can hardly contain their enthusiasm, so their teacher has to be very patient! They have a lot of laughs and a lot of fun, but they also manage to learn something!

This little duckling is different from the other ducklings. Everyone laughs at him, animals and humans alike, and only his mum loves him. But when spring comes, he sees his reflection in the water, and... what a change has taken place!

Henny Penny

► Emily Flynn

Henny Penny is going to the village when a big acorn falls on her head from an oak tree. She thinks that the sky is falling and she runs to tell the king. Along the road she meets Cocky Locky, Ducky Lucky and other animal friends. They all join her, while the fox is waiting for them in the wood. He's hungry and he wants to eat the animals. But, at the last moment, something unexpected happens... This version of the traditional tale ends in a different and quite surprising way.

The Nightingale

► Hans Christian Andersen
Retold by Paola Traverso

In three stories three characters teach us lessons: the tortoise ‘slowly but surely’ wins the race; the mouse becomes a ‘great little friend’ to the mighty lion; the country mouse prefers the quiet life back home to the luxury – and dangers – of the town.

This is the ‘ordinary’ life of Count Dracula, his wife Felicia, their three children, Adam, Eve and Brian, and their butler, Roman Blenski.

Some festivals are popular all over the world. Festivals! tells children how Christmas, Easter, Halloween and other festivities are celebrated in many countries of the world. The young readers are encouraged to use manual skills to colour in, cut out, glue on and create fun decorations and greetings cards.

A team of scientists headed by none other than Doctor Frankenstein creates a tender-hearted monster, who a group of nosy children find in the school lab.

When the Queen’s golden harp disappears nobody knows where to look or what to do. The King offers 500 gold pieces to the person who can find it. Clever Freddy is the only one who has the answer and can find the thief.

It’s Halloween and the Beast family receive a very special invitation from Dracula. Follow them on their adventures as they fly across Europe to Dracula’s castle in Transylvania. Find out what happens when they get lost in the forest and all the fun they have at Dracula’s amazing Halloween party!

Martin, who is very good at English, goes to see his penfriend in London. He doesn’t fly there, or take a coach or catch a train... he arrives there magically by computer.

The Emperor of China invites the nightingale of the forest to stay at court. She sings beautifully and everyone loves her. Things change when a colourful artificial bird arrives in the palace. The nightingale is not longer the favourite and flies away. All of a sudden the Emperor is not well and realizes that what he needs is that beautiful, real singing. Will the nightingale ever be back?

Total FIRST - New Edition

For the revised 2015 Exam

► Annie Broadhead, Ginni Light, Robert Hampton

Total FIRST – New Edition is a preparation course for the Cambridge English: FIRST exam (B2 Vantage of the Common European Framework of Reference). It has been revised throughout to reflect the new Cambridge English exam specifications for 2015. The course is suitable both for in-class use and individual study, and the careful choice and variety of materials make it suitable for the FIRST and FIRST for Schools exams. Total FIRST – New Edition focuses on the two aspects of the exam identified as being the most challenging for students – Reading and Use of English and Writing. Students learn through exam-style tasks as well as general communicative activities. Each of the sixteen units offers carefully graded exam tasks and strategies for each part of the exam to guide students through every aspect. There is a Grammar page after every unit with at least one targeted exercise. The double pages after each unit help students practise the more complex tasks covered in the exam (multiple-choice cloze, open cloze, word formation, key word transformation). The Banks at the end of the volume take a closer look at each part of the exam (Reading and Use of English, Writing, Listening, Speaking), with helpful tips and advice on how to achieve the best possible result.

Use your English to your advantage

Features:

- 16 topic-based units
- Reading and Use of English tasks (with tips) after every unit
- Exam Tips and Exam Strategies lead students step-by-step through the exam tasks and provide practical advice on how to approach them
- Grammar page after every unit to consolidate grammar structures
- Extensive Banks on the four parts of the exam, with strategies on how to approach the tasks
- 120-page Language Maximiser providing further practice for First-level vocabulary and grammar through exam-style tasks
- 2 FIRST Practice Tests
- Audio CD-ROM with a computer-based version of the 2 Practice Tests and 2 Speaking videos, including one with on-screen tips and strategies

Viewpoints

Language - Art - Society - Literature
► Ann Farley, Betty Walters

Viewpoints takes us on a tour through the culture of the English-speaking world, inspired by the words of some of the most important writers. The volume is divided into ten units, based on texts by Shelley, Dickens, Wilde, Joyce, Carroll, Poe, Twain, Hawthorne, Fitzgerald, Salinger, in order to deal with the key aspects of English-speaking countries and cultures.

- Language&Education: how the English language has changed, how it has spread in the world and the British and American education systems
- Media&Society: work, young people and the media, in the English-speaking world
- Environment: the most important ecological issues, pollution and ecological politics

- Science&Technology: science, research and the history of industry and technology
- Art: traditional painting and avant-garde art, architecture, photography, films and music

- And much more:
- Travel (tourist attractions, landscapes, national parks),
 - Food (traditional food and eating habits, food and festivities),
 - Homes (typical homes, the life in the countryside and in the city),
 - Leisure (free time activities and sports).

At the end of the book, a Map and Fact File section (the UK, the USA, Ireland, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India) enhances the volume with a global view of the English-speaking world.

Features:

- 10 units made up of 6 double-page sections, 4 sections are dedicated to cultural studies and 2 sections to literature and art
- A range of activities practicing the four skills
- The student's book is accompanied by a DVD featuring the digital book, extra material in pdf, audio files and videos

Cultural Links

An exploration of the English-speaking world
► Philippa Bowen, Margherita Cumino

Cultural Links explores and discovers the English-speaking world and offers links through the British Isles across North America, India, Australia, New Zealand and more. Cultural Links consists of 7 topics (files), dealing with the differences and similarities between the countries which are part of the English-speaking World.

7 Files to discover the English-speaking World

Language: how much has the English language changed? How does English manage to create and keep a common link among far-off countries and people of the world?

Identity: what does English national identity mean to English-speaking countries in an ever increasing multi-ethnic and multicultural world?

Countries and Places: geographical, socio-economical and cultural passport of English-speaking countries

Flashback: the main historical events of English-speaking countries, from the Industrial Revolution to the Great Depression to the difficult Irish Question and many more

People and Lifestyle: contemporary issues such as family and how it is changing, fashion, sport, social networking

Education: traditional and contemporary British Education, characteristics of north-American schools, school programmes like Erasmus and much more

Institutions: an overview of the English-speaking World institutions, interactions with the European Union.

Features:

- Each File consists of two parts: Facts and figures deals with the topic and allows the student to learn about the topic itself. Global view focuses on teenage issues and challenges the students to think about themselves and the world around them
- Word bank for lexical practice
- Each File is accompanied by activities on the four skills
