Introducing Penguin Readers

Penguin Readers is a series of the best contemporary fiction, essential non-fiction and popular classics written for learners of English as a foreign language.

Beautifully illustrated and carefully adapted, these graded readers combine Penguin Random House's internationally bestselling authors and most compelling content with structured language progression.

From Starter (Pre-A1) to Level 7 (B2), Penguin Readers follow the CEFR framework and include language activities that help readers of all ages and abilities to develop key skills.

All titles are supported by online resources including digital books, audio, additional exercises and activities, as well as introductory videos and a series handbook.

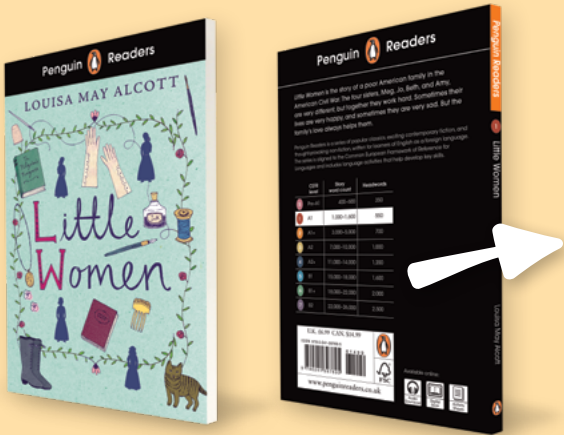

Click here to watch a video that introduces the series

All titles at lower levels contain clear, attractive text. Starter and Level 1 books feature classic stories in the form of graphic novels to support the text and aid student understanding.

Introducing Penguin Readers

Penguin Readers are published across eight levels, from Pre-A1 (Starter) to B2 (Level 7), with each corresponding to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) and featuring activity types aligned to international exams including Flyers, PET, KET, FCE, CAE, CPE and TOEFL.

The language used in each reader is strictly controlled, with the grammar syllabus and permitted vocabulary correlating to the CEFR. A small number of new words are introduced in each story and are all explained in a glossary at the back of the book.

	CEFR level	Story word count	Headwords
S	Pre-A1	400–600	350
1	A1	1,000–1,600	550
2	A1+	3,000–5,000	700
3	A2	7,000–10,000	1,000
4	A2+	11,000–14,000	1,200
5	B1	15,000–18,000	1,600
6	B1+	18,000–22,000	2,000
7	B2	22,000–26,000	2,500

Penguin Readers structure and content

Each Penguin Reader begins with a short introduction and some 'before-reading questions' to help orientate the students towards the subject matter of the story or text.

Comprehension questions directly follow the text and test the students' understanding of each chapter. When students have finished reading the entire book, there are a set of questions to test their understanding of the text as a whole.

During-reading questions
Write the answers to these questions in your notebook.

CHAPTER ONE
1. What plastic things do we eat food with?
2. What plastic things do we sit on?
3. Where does rubber come from?
4. Why were rayon clothes bad?
5. What things were made from Bakelite?

CHAPTER TWO
1. Why do we use more plastic now than we did in the past?
2. Which plastic do you find in food packaging?
3. In which two places can you find PVC?
4. Which plastic are records made of?

CHAPTER THREE
1. Why do we make some things from plastic and not from glass or wood?
2. Where are clean and dry plastic things very important?
3. What does plastic carry to our homes?

CHAPTER FOUR
1. What is single-use plastic?
2. We cannot throw away plastic. Why?
3. Why do we need to recycle plastic?
4. What is the best way to recycle plastic?

CHAPTER FIVE
1. How much plastic do we recycle?
2. What can you make with...
3. How can we stop making plastic rubbish?

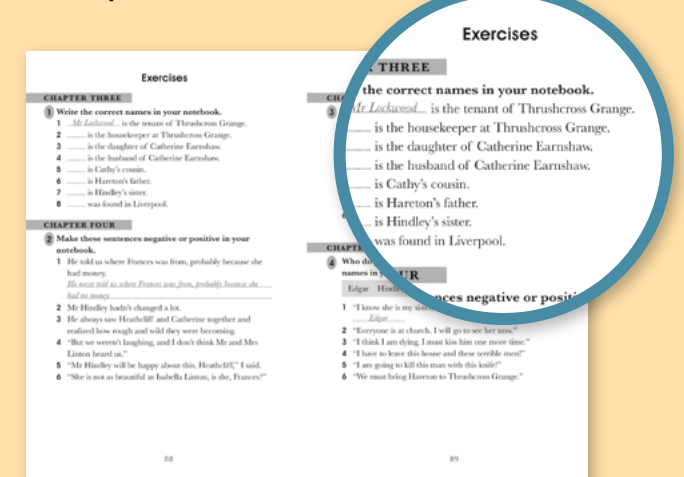

CHAPTER SIX
1. Which countries are recycling 90% of plastic bottles?
2. Some countries do not give people new plastic bags. Which countries are they?
3. Which countries do not make new things with plastic microbeads?

After-reading questions
1. What do we make from rubber?
2. Who made the first plastic? Where and when?
3. Why do we use a lot of plastic?
4. What is bad about plastic?
5. What do you do with your plastic rubbish?

At the end of the book, students are given extension work in the form of written projects and in-depth essay questions.

Any difficult vocabulary is explained in a picture dictionary (at lower levels) and in a glossary at the back. The new vocabulary is recycled in the text where possible to increase its exposure.

An 'exercises' section includes grammar-, vocabulary- or comprehension-based questions dedicated to most chapters.

Essay questions
What were the most difficult decisions that Winston had to make during his first weeks as prime minister? Was he happy about all his decisions?
"In some ways, Halifax was right and Winston was wrong." Do you agree or disagree? Give your reasons. What would have happened if Halifax had succeeded in his plans to reach Mussolini?
"You can not only create [feelings], they create you." How was Winston's ability to create feelings important to his first week?
